Gregor Pozniak

Secretary General,
Association of Mutual Insurers and
Insurance Cooperatives in Europe (AMICE), Brussels

Since March 2008, Gregor Pozniak is the Secretary General of AMICE, the Association of Mutual Insurers and Insurance Cooperatives in Europe (formed in late 2007 from its two predecessor organisations, ACME and AISAM).

He joined AMICE from ICMA (the International Capital Market Association), based in London and Zurich, where he was Senior Advisor for Regulatory Policy with a focus on European regulatory developments in financial markets regulation.

Before this assignment, he was the Deputy Secretary General of the Brussels-based Federation of European Securities Exchanges (FESE) for seven years (1998-2005) where he focused on regulatory and legislative issues from the viewpoint of Europe's securities and derivatives exchanges and their operators.

Earlier steps in his professional career included the position of Member of the Management Committee and Head of Listings and Membership at the Vienna Stock Exchange (1995-1998), and Deputy Head of Investment Research at Creditanstalt (today part of the Unicredit Group) in Vienna.

He holds Masters' and Doctoral Degrees from Vienna University of Economic Sciences and has studied at London Business School and Georgetown University, Washington D.C.

Gregor was born in 1957 and lives in Brussels with his wife and three children. His working languages are English, German and French.
